

INFORMATION SHEET: CAREER SERVICES

Career Options for Master of Information Graduates

Numerous career options are available for the new Information Professionals graduating from the Master of Information program, including the following:

AND MANY MORE IN

research & development departments, KM departments, archives, IS & IT departments, corporate libraries, information centres, strategic planning departments ...

WITHIN

hospitals & other health institutions, government institutions, universities, law firms, banks & other financial organizations, archives, corporations, nonprofit organizations, information technology firms, public libraries, media organizations, museums, associations, pharmaceutical organizations, galleries, consulting firms, research institutions, database vendors, publishing houses, records centres ...

SUCH AS

United Nations, IBM, Sick Kids Hospital, CBC, Archives of Ontario, Ernst & Young, Toronto Star, York University, Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, McMillan LLP, Calgary Public Library, PricewaterhouseCoopers, University of Toronto Libraries, Royal Ontario Museum, University of Alberta, Bank of Montreal, Toronto Public Library, Research in Motion, National Public Radio, Canadian Tire, Art Gallery of Ontario, Yale University Library, City of Toronto ...

ORGANIZATIONS